Summer Term

Friday 22nd May

Aim high ... because everything is possible!

Arthog

An amazing time was had by all at Arthog this week. The activities and leaders were outstanding and much fun and learning took place. The children came home with lots of fantastic memories, aching muscles and dirty, wet clothes! Photos will be uploaded to the website shortly.

Stepping Out

Pedestrian Training

This training for Yr3 and 4 children is due to take place on 1st and 8th June. Could all slips please be returned to school as soon as possible to allow your child to take part in the training. We are looking for a couple of parents to assist the trainer in the activities. Please call in to Reception if you are able to assist with this.

Starlight Charity

THANK YOU!

The school raised £54.40 for the clothes recycling and the company sent £13.60 to the Starlight Charity.
