Autumn Term 2015

Friday 2nd October

Aim high ... because everything is possible!

BEST OF BRITISH WEEK

The children have had a super time this week thinking and learning about British Values and taking part in exciting activities. Please take a look at our displays to see what we have been doing.

Early Reading Workshop

Mrs Underwood will be leading an early reading workshop on Friday 16th October from 2-3pm. This will be open to all parents interested in early reading. A letter has been sent out to individuals who may find this workshop beneficial.

SEE YOU THERE!

School Photos

Individual school photographs have been rescheduled for Friday 9th October starting at 9am. If you have younger or older children who do not attend Woore School please bring them along for the beginning of the session if you wish for family photographs.

Own story ending:

He could blow the brick house down and he could eat the little pigs at the end.

We are looking for some creative pupils or family members to come up with a plan to transform the front grassy area of our school into an interesting, colourful and artistic design.

If you are interested, please let Mrs Ward know and we can talk about possibilities.
