

Governor Profile

Peter Goringe

My wife and I have lived in Woore for six years and we have three grown-up children and two grandchildren aged 4 and 2, who live in other parts of the country. I've worked in education for 38 years. I was a primary school teacher and headteacher, a senior education officer in local authorities and a diocese and, most recently, a schools' adjudicator, appointed by the Secretary of State for Education.

I have now retired and was pleased to be asked to consider joining the governing board of the school 2 years ago. I have now been appointed as a member of the local governing committee as part of Collective Vision Trust. I work closely with the headteacher, staff and fellow governors as we seek to provide the very best quality of education and care for all of the children.
